 The absurd statement of our contemporary that the present editor of the Democrat was about to retire from the control of the paper, to be succeeded by Mr. Sidney French, we do not think worthy of notice or contradiction.
 We clip the above from the Democrat of the 23rd inst., contradicting our announcement that negotiations were pending between the nominal proprietor of that paper and Mr. French, for the purchase of the Democrat. As Mr. F. is now editing the Democrat, we would respectfully request him to state whether or not our item had found for a basis. Tell the truth, French, and shame the d—.

LOCAL MELANGE.
 —Spring wheat looks well.
 —Winter wheat will yield better hereabouts than anticipated.
 —Fruit promises an abundant yield this season.
 —Street sprinklers find plenty to do now-a-days.
 —Ice cream and iced tea days have come, the warmest of the year.
 —For good, square, clean and toothsome meals go to Mrs. McFall's.
 —Joe Huddart has plenty of good, clear ice for lemonades and such.
 —Hansen, of the Fairbury Gazette, gave us a brief call on Saturday last.
 —The National Republican Convention convenes at Philadelphia on Wednesday next.
 —Several couples dedicated W. T. Rogers' new house on last Friday night by a dance.
 —Rev. Alexander is delivering his course of lectures to Lincoln audiences. They take well.
 —Baltimore has had as many National Conventions as all other cities of the Union combined.
 —The Telegraph office has been removed to Mrs. Johnson's building, opposite the Sherman House.
 —Calhoun, Cranmore, Vancil, Males and Rich (Lon.) left on Monday last for a little hunt on the Republican.
 —Dr. Williams gave us a call on Saturday. He does not retire from the Normal School until the close of next month.
 —See Joe Roy's new "ad." He says he is now in his true element, and cordially invites those in want of furniture to give him a call.
 —White hats are all the rage now-a-days with Greeley men. They will play out when the bleak winds of November commence blowing.
 —On Monday last Dr. Thurman traded his residence property on Main street, near the Post Office, for that of E. S. Wibley, further up street.
 —Next Tuesday Johnson county will vote on the proposition of subsidizing the B., Ft. K. & P. R. R. Of course the electors will do it.
 —The Greeley-Davis-its of Nebraska boast that "Honest Dave Butler" is with them. To Republicans it is indeed funny to see Tipton supporting Greeley and Butler.
 —The ladies of the Presbyterian Church will have a Strawberry Festival at McPherson Hall, Thursday evening, May 30th. Proceeds to be applied to repairing the church. All are invited to attend.
 —One St. Louis R. R. interest having put a boat on the river to ply between St. Joseph and Nebraska City, a rival interest has put on another boat, and competition promises to be lively in the transmission of grain.
 —A little piece of humanity made its appearance at the residence of Esquire Hughes on Sunday last. Dick says the material is embodied in it out of which a fine young woman can be made. He says he needs but four more pieces to complete his dozen.
 —Furnas & Sons, of this place, sold the very fine Short Horn six months old full calf "Dan Wheeler" this week, for the sum of two hundred dollars. That's the difference between "blood" and "vermin." It costs no more to raise the "blood" than the "vermin" and so much really. We are glad to see our people opening their eyes on this important subject.
 —A very few of our citizens who have been convalescent Republicans a few years, have had a relapse and fallen back in a malignant Democratic fever. As the boy said when informed of the death of his grandfather, "Is the best thing granpa could have done," so we say to those who grow so eloquent in abusing steadfast Republicans with whom they used to affiliate, "go back in the mire of Democracy; it's the best thing they can do."
 —J. A. Horbach, Esq., was here on last Saturday. He reports the affairs of the Trunk Road as progressing finely. The opposition of Nebraska City has proven impotent, and when the Trunk is built it is in no way certain that Nebraska City will have it, a better and more feasible route lying. From the beginning even until now, Nebraska City has insisted that the Trunk Road should terminate at her door, else not be built at all. Until recently her opposition has been fatal to the project, but the road will now be built independent of her.

GREENEY AND BROWN CLUB.
 In accordance with notice given, the Liberal Republicans of Brownville met at the office of Hewett and Newman.
 O. B. Hewett was chosen temporary chairman and Geo. B. Moore temporary Secretary.
 By request of the chairman, J. S. Church stated the object of the meeting, saying, that "we meet to consider the matter of organizing a political club, with which all can unite who endorse the Cincinnati Platform and favor the election of Greeley and Brown."
 Judge Morgan then offered the following resolution:
 Resolved, That we deem it right and expedient to organize a Greeley Club at once.
 A. P. Cogswell spoke in favor of the resolution, and gave his reasons at length, declaring that he could not think of such a thing as possible failure; that having put his hand to the plow, he did not propose to look back.
 C. W. Wheeler next spoke in favor of organizing, stating that he had already seen the practical working of the liberal movement in a neighboring State, and he firmly believed that with the success of the movement inaugurated at Cincinnati, there would be peace and prosperity throughout the entire country.
 Judge Morgan followed with an earnest speech in favor of immediate and thorough organization. He declared that he went into this liberal movement without reservation, and sink or swim, he would stand by it to the last.
 J. S. Church spoke in favor of immediate and positive action, stating that this was a movement of the people—that he believed the country was now ready for united action to elect the nominees of the Cincinnati Convention.
 The vote was unanimous to proceed with organization.
 On motion of J. S. Church, a committee of three, consisting of J. S. Church, A. P. Cogswell and A. W. Morgan, was appointed to draft such by-laws, rules and regulations, as may be deemed necessary for the Government of the Club.
 On motion of W. H. Small, the Committee on By-Laws was instructed to report at the next meeting of the Club.
 O. B. Hewett then addressed the Club, giving his reasons why we should organize and go to work in earnest for Greeley and Brown. He believed in looking forward rather than back. The issues presented were those of today. He did not propose to wait until other organizations had adopted our platform and made it their own. For one he was ready for work.
 The following resolutions introduced by J. S. Church were unanimously adopted:
 1st. Resolved, That we invite all men, without regard to former political affiliations, who endorse the Cincinnati platform and favor the election of Greeley and Brown for president and vice-president of the United States, to meet with us and join our organization.
 2d. Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to offer a report of this meeting to the county papers for publication.
 On motion of A. P. Cogswell, J. S. Church and O. B. Hewett were invited to address the Club at its next meeting.
 Adjourned to meet at the office of Hewett and Newman, Monday evening, June 10th.
 O. B. HEWETT,
 Geo. B. MOORE, Sec'y.

Found Drowned.
 Last Tuesday as Mr. Thos. Heady was out on the Missouri river catching drift wood, the body of a man floated down stream toward him. He secured the body to his boat and conveyed it to shore, after which he notified Coroner Eblight, who quickly summoned a jury and held an inquest. No papers or other clue was found on the body to indicate its identity, and it is supposed that it represented the poor fellow, who, with two others, attempted to wade the Platte some ten days ago, and was lost in that swollen stream. One hand seemed badly burned, and one eye looked as though a bird of prey had plucked it out. A verdict was rendered in accordance with appearances surrounding, and the body was buried in Walnut Grove Cemetery on yesterday. The deceased appeared to be about 26 years of age and of medium height.

Episcopal Ordination.
 On Friday last (Trinity Sunday) the Rt. Rev. R. H. Clarkson, D. D. Bishop of Nebraska, before a very crowded congregation in Trinity Cathedral, Omaha, ordained to the Holy Priesthood, the Rev. J. E. Roberts, Clergyman in charge of the united parishes of Brownville, Nemaha City and Peru. The Rev. candidate was presented by the Rev. James Paterson, B. D. Rector of St. Mark's, Omaha, who also united with the Bishop in the laying on of hands. The Bishop delivered a powerful and affecting charge from Acts 10 and pt. of v. 30: "Preaching peace by Jesus Christ," and administered the Holy Communion. The whole made a very solemn and impressive ceremony, and one that will not easily be effaced from the memory.

Campaign Papers.
 All or any of the important political papers of the country, Republican, Liberal or Democratic, can be obtained at Moore's Book Store at special rates.

The Democrat professes to be anxious to learn how it is that Geo. P. Eaton was represented in the late delegation to Lincoln, notwithstanding the giving of proxies was barred. Mr. Eaton had no proxy. A vacancy in the delegation occurring through the swelling of the head of one of the members, two thirds of the delegates to our late County Convention petitioned the County Central Committee to appoint Geo. P. Eaton to fill the vacancy thus occasioned, and Mr. E. was commissioned to the State Convention as a regular delegate by legal authority and not at his own solicitation or through intrigue.

Last Notice.

 How is it that notwithstanding the hard times and scarcity of money at the present time, that the old established grocery firm of Swan & Brother are continuing to receive and sell as many goods as ever? The reason is plain. They sell the best quality of goods at the lowest living prices, and as they buy and sell for cash, they are enabled to defy competition.
